

To the Members of the California State Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 338 without my signature.

While I believe that Internet safety is important, this bill does virtually nothing to ensure districts do more to protect students from accessing inappropriate websites. The Superintendent of Public Instruction has the authority and should already be taking all of the necessary steps to protect children in schools even without this bill.

Therefore, I am unable to sign this bill.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger